

MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH.

HARD SHELL STATE COMMITTEE.

ALBANY, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.
The State Central Committee of the "Hard Shells" met at Congress Hall last night. They agreed on an address and Committee to organize the various counties, and adjourned. No proposal for a fusion was received from the Softs, whose Central Committee was in session when the Hard Shells adjourned.

The Canal Board adjourned to-day and will meet again on the 10th of October, when it is probable that more work will be put on the river at this point and the ferry boat of the Hudson River Railway crosses with difficulty.

HAVANA—ARRIVAL OF GEN. CONCHA.
BALTIMORE, Thursday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Havana letters received at Charleston by the steamer Governor Dudley, contain but little news of interest, being mainly devoted to the accounts of the reception of Gen. Concha, the new Captain-General.

Great enthusiasm appears to have been manifested. Gen. Pezuela, after receiving and escorting his successor to the Palace, retired to his country seat, and Gen. Concha was driven to the Audiencia to take the oath of office in the carriage presented to him by his admirers.

Orders had been given to place the cells of the Moro, Cabanes and other forts in a state of complete repair.

Captain McLean and seven of the crew of the bark Mary of New-York had arrived at Havana. Their vessel went on the Colorado, and finding it impossible to get her off, they abandoned her. Some hours afterward she was seen on fire, and burned to the water's edge.

An award of $2,500 to Vincento Noguera, as compensation for injuries sustained in the riot at New-Orleans in 1854, is announced in a triumphant manner in the official gazette of the 10th inst.

The Governor Dudley, as she was leaving Havana harbor, hailed the Leonidas, from Philadelphia, going in.

By the New-Orleans papers of Saturday last, we have Tampa dates to the 9th inst.

El Comercio asserts that a party of Filibusters were preparing to sail from New-Orleans to seize Tampa. The New-Orleans papers laugh at the affair.

Another of the men who were shot in the riots at New-Orleans had died, making the sixth life lost. The bark Cordelia from Galveston for New-York put into Key West on the 23d inst., short of water.

The cargo of the schooner Athalia which went ashore on the Western Shoals, would be saved, but two-thirds of it in a damaged state.

On the 21st inst., the brig Maxwell, of Wells, Me., from Santa Cruz for Liverpool, with mahogany, and three feet of water in her hold, struck on the Eastern Shoals and bilged. The cargo would be saved but the vessel would prove a total loss.

The Archbishop of Baltimore has summoned the prelates to a provincial council, to open at the Cathedral in this city on the 3d of November.

The prelates of the cities of Baltimore, Philadelphia, Richmond, Pittsburgh, Wheeling, Erie and Savannah. The Angel Gabriel has been arrested in Washington and confined in prison.

MEXICO—COUNT BOULBON EXECUTED.
NEW-ORLEANS, Tuesday, Sept. 29, 1854.

The steamship Orizaba has arrived at this port from Vera Cruz with dates from the City of Mexico to the 15th inst.

Count Boulbon was executed on the 13th of August. Further details of the insurgents are reported, but there is no later information concerning the movement of Alvarado.

Turrible, Secretary of the Mexican Legation, came a passenger in the Orizaba.

Visa Galveston we have Brownsville accounts of the 16th inst.

The revolution was gradually progressing, and it was reported that Monterey was in the possession of the rebels.

A storm commenced on the coast of Texas on the 18th, and raged with terrific fury for four days.

An immense amount of property was destroyed, and several vessels and many lives lost.

The town of Matamoros was totally destroyed, with the exception of three houses.

The crops both of the cane and cotton were nearly ruined.

AMERICAN ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY.
NEW-YORK, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

The American Anti-Slavery Society met at the City Hall at 10 o'clock this morning, and was called to order by Wm. Lloyd Garrison. The attendance is quite full and consists of men of all parties. A series of resolutions was reported.

Wm. Garrison, Mr. C. F. Byrne and Gerrit Smith discussed the question as to whether the Federal Constitution legitimately interpreted legalized Slavery.

Mr. Garrison remarked that it was a singular Union when a Liberty Convention should assemble in a slave State where they would all be lynched.

It is proposed to call a Republican Mass Convention at Utica to revise the nominations and perfect the organization of the party.

The Convention reassembled at 2 o'clock.

William Lloyd Garrison and Gerrit Smith were engaged nearly the whole afternoon in discussing the question as to whether Slavery was recognized in the Constitution.

The hall was crowded, and the excitement was intense.

Addresses are expected in the evening from W. Wells Brown, C. Lenox Remond, Lucy Stone, Mr. Sargant and others.

To-morrow is the anniversary of the rescue of Jerry.

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE FAIR.

PHILADELPHIA, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

The State Fair closed this evening. The attendance during the week fully equaled that of the day. In consequence of the large receipts, additions have been made to the premiums, which are nearly double the amount originally advertised, reaching some $7,000.

The plowing match came off to-day. Twenty plows were entered, and the premiums were awarded to Newell Brown for a Michigan plow and plowing; Geo. Beckman for a Wiggins plow; Jacob Silber for the best plowing; George Blake second, and Robert Blake third best plowing, and H. Randolph Trege as the best plow-boy.

No annual address was delivered, in consequence of the illness of Mr. McGowan, who was expected to deliver the address. No accident occurred to mar the pleasure of the Fair, although the visitors reached at least 250,000.

THE CHOLERA IN PITTSBURGH.

PITTSBURGH, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Cholera continues to abate in this city, and all alarm has entirely subsided. There were only twelve deaths from the disease yesterday. There were but seven deaths from cholera to-day.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

At Augusta on Wednesday there were five deaths from yellow fever, eleven new cases reported.

At Charleston on Monday there were only three deaths from the fever, and at Savannah, on the same day, seven.

POLITICS IN OHIO.

CINCINNATI, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

The Old Line Democrats held a mass meeting in Fifth-st. Market place last night, and addresses were made by the Hon. Geo. E. Fugh and others. The meeting was very disorderly, and the Know-Nothing seemed to be in the majority. The excitement increases as the election approaches.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.

Wm. Woodcock of Washington, notorious for his forgery on the Chemical Bank of New-York City, was delivered over to the New-York City to-day, and left on the afternoon train of cars for that city.

LORD ELGIN—CASS ON THE STUMP.

DETROIT, Friday, Sept. 29, 1854.

Lord Elgin and suite arrived here to-day by the Great Western Railway, and were received by Mayor Hyde and the Common Council, and escorted to the State Fair. A dinner will be given them at 4 o'clock, at the National Hotel, by the Common Council and several prominent citizens.